CELEBRATE MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY with “A DAY ON! NOT A DAY OFF”
City of Bloomington’s 2013 Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Celebration
The City of Bloomington's Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Celebration will take place at the Buskirk-Chumley Theater, 114 E. Kirkwood Ave., Bloomington, IN. The celebration begins on Jan. 21, at 7 p.m., with a reception (featuring hors d'oeuvres) to start at 6 p.m.
The event will include remarks by Mayor Kruzan, presentation of the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Legacy Award, recognition of volunteers who participate in "A Day On! Not A Day Off," and musical entertainment by the Indiana University African American Choral Ensemble and the University Elementary School Fifth Grade Chorus.
The keynote speaker is Carlotta LaNier, one of the "Little Rock Nine," who were the first African American students to attend Little Rock Central High School in 1957. The students were initially prevented from entering the racially-segregated school by Arkansas Governor Orval Faubus and then attended after the intervention of President Eisenhower. The event is widely considered one of the most important events in the Civil Rights Movement.
The program and reception are both free and open to the public.
Visit bloomington.in.gov/mlk for more Information about the MLK Day Celebration, or contact Craig Brenner, Special Projects Coordinator for the Community and Family Resources Department, at 349-3471.
