COUNSELING and PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES
CAPS SUPPORT GROUPS and CAPS-OWN
Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) and Sexual Assault Crisis Services (SACS) offer many groups to help students adjust to college; manage stress, anxiety and depression; improve self-esteem; enhance relationships; and make changes in their substance use patterns. Groups typically require a semester commitment at a cost of $10 per group session. Contact CAPS to see if group treatment could benefit you.

FREE workshops. You do not need to be a current client to attend workshops and you can just drop in; no commitment is needed. Check our website to learn more and view the most up-to-date schedule. Free Mindfulness Meditation Practice sessions are on Mon. Wed. at 2:00 p.m. and Tue. Thur. at 10:00 a.m.

For more information about all our services, visit the CAPS website at http://www.indiana.edu/~health/counseling/index.shtml. You can also subscribe to receive a monthly newsletter at https://list.indiana.edu/sympa/info/capsinfo-l.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) is located in the IU Health Center 4th Floor, 600 N. Jordan Ave. 812-855-5711

CAPS-OWN: INFORMATION for STUDENTS
If you have never been seen at CAPS, you can schedule a free, 30 minute, CAPS-OWN appointment. Call 812-855-5711, or stop by CAPS on the 4th floor of the IU Health Center to schedule.

Appointments will be available within 48 hours of your contacting CAPS. A counselor will help you determine the best CAPS service for you. Please review this site for more information about CAPS: http://caps.indiana.edu/.
