In This Edition:

- Monday, March 3, 2014
- The Residence Hall Association is holding elections on Tuesday, March 4 from 10 a.m. – 7 p.m. Vote for campus level and in-center positions. Polling locations near your center desk. Your vote matters.

- Thank you to those who have taken it and, if you haven’t, there is still time! Take the survey at http://www.youropinionsmatter.com/d171/
- The Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission is asking everyone to start dialing the complete numbers now and to continue dialing a complete phone number, (812)-XXX-XXXX.

- Under the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, residents of 3rd & Union, BBHN, Campus View, Evermann, Redbud, Tulip Tree, and University Apartments: students who plan to stay for part or all of the break contact their respective center desk to notify management of their plans.
- Under the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, residents are permitted to stay in their room or apartment through the break period. For the safety and security of all residents, RPS asks that students who plan to stay for part or all of the break contact their respective center desk to notify management of their plans.
- Residents of Ashton, Briscoe, Collins, Eigenmann, Foster, Foster, McNutt, Read, Rose, Teter, and Wright: accommodations during this period will consist of a space in a floor lounge along with other students. Space is limited, so residents should make requests as early as possible.

- Residents of Wilkie, Union Street Apartments, and Hillcrest Apartments: Under the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, residents are permitted to stay in their room during the break period.
- Residents of Willkie, Union Street Apartments, and Hillcrest Apartments: In accordance with the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, RPS will provide temporary housing for residence hall students who need to stay on campus over Spring Break. It is anticipated that many of the accommodations during this period will be in a floor lounge along with other students. Space is limited, so residents should make requests as early as possible.

- Residents of Ashton, Briscoe, Collins, Eigenmann, Foster, Foster, McNutt, Read, Rose, Teter, and Wright: accommodations during this period will consist of a space in a floor lounge along with other students. Space is limited, so residents should make requests as early as possible.

- Residents of Wilkie, Union Street Apartments, and Hillcrest Apartments: Under the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, residents of 3rd & Union, BBHN, Campus View, Evermann, Redbud, Tulip Tree, and University Apartments: students who plan to stay for part or all of the break contact their respective center desk to notify management of their plans.

- Under the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, residents are permitted to stay in their room or apartment through the break period. For the safety and security of all residents, RPS asks that students who plan to stay for part or all of the break contact their respective center desk to notify management of their plans.

- Residents of Ashton, Briscoe, Collins, Eigenmann, Foster, Foster, McNutt, Read, Rose, Teter, and Wright: accommodations during this period will consist of a space in a floor lounge along with other students. Space is limited, so residents should make requests as early as possible.

- Residents of Wilkie, Union Street Apartments, and Hillcrest Apartments: Under the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, residents are permitted to stay in their room during the break period.
- Residents of Willkie, Union Street Apartments, and Hillcrest Apartments: In accordance with the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, RPS will provide temporary housing for residence hall students who need to stay on campus over Spring Break. It is anticipated that many of the accommodations during this period will be in a floor lounge along with other students. Space is limited, so residents should make requests as early as possible.

- Residents of Ashton, Briscoe, Collins, Eigenmann, Foster, Foster, McNutt, Read, Rose, Teter, and Wright: accommodations during this period will consist of a space in a floor lounge along with other students. Space is limited, so residents should make requests as early as possible.

- Residents of Wilkie, Union Street Apartments, and Hillcrest Apartments: Under the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, residents of 3rd & Union, BBHN, Campus View, Evermann, Redbud, Tulip Tree, and University Apartments: students who plan to stay for part or all of the break contact their respective center desk to notify management of their plans.

- Under the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, residents are permitted to stay in their room or apartment through the break period. For the safety and security of all residents, RPS asks that students who plan to stay for part or all of the break contact their respective center desk to notify management of their plans.

- Residents of Ashton, Briscoe, Collins, Eigenmann, Foster, Foster, McNutt, Read, Rose, Teter, and Wright: accommodations during this period will consist of a space in a floor lounge along with other students. Space is limited, so residents should make requests as early as possible.

- Residents of Wilkie, Union Street Apartments, and Hillcrest Apartments: Under the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, residents are permitted to stay in their room during the break period.

- Residents of 3rd & Union, BBHN, Campus View, Evermann, Redbud, Tulip Tree, and University Apartments: Under the terms of the housing contract for these buildings, residents may remain in their apartments during the break period, but are not asked to report the number of students occupying their respective center desk.

- New area code coming to Bloomington

- On September 6, the new (812) area code will overlay the (812) area code. This means that it will be necessary to dial a complete phone number, (812)-XXX-XXXX.

- The fall 2014 unfurnished apartment waitlist will open Monday, March 10. Sign up at Campus View 119, Monday – Friday, 8 a.m. – noon and 1 – 5 p.m.

- To be eligible for the waitlist, you must have a 2014-15 housing contract. For more information, call 855-6600.

- Fall semester contracts available

- RPS is offering a one-semester contract for students who will only be on campus during the 2014 fall semester. This is a very cost effective option for December graduates and those leaving for overseas study, overseas internship, and in-center positions. Contact (812) 856-5851 for more information.

- Friendly faces and popular places

- Test your knowledge about residence halls and the people who help them run!

- Hurry, the contest closes Wednesday at 5 p.m. Visit the contest page to see this week’s picture and submit your answer.

- The answer to last week’s question was Wilkie Residence Center! Congratulations to last week’s winner, Lauren Katzmarek!

- Each week this semester the first resident who correctly identifies the photo will be selected to receive a $10 Target gift card. At the end of the semester, one of the weekly winners will be randomly selected to receive a pair of wireless headphones. There is a new photo every Wednesday. Weekly winners are eligible to re-enter.

- Participation is limited to residents of Residential Programs and Services (RPS). RPS employees are not eligible to participate. Prizes are subject to Federal tax and may require completion of appropriate tax forms. Unclaimed prizes will be forfeited 90 days from initial notification.

- Move your car for basketball

- Vehicles must be removed from the Orange, Blue and Green parking lots adjacent to Assembly Hall by 6 p.m. the day before men’s home basketball games. Vehicles with permits may park in the White Lot on the day of home games.

- Basketball games are scheduled for March 5. Athletic schedules are available online.